I was looking for a proper snap in Label that has clean text printed in without many toolchanges.

This label can easily be printed many times on the same buildplate and only contains 3 toolchanges and a very small purge tower.

Also the text is faxing the buildplate so you get a proper smooth text surface.

If the fit is to loose for you scale up to 101% or 102% - for my MK4 it came out best at 102%
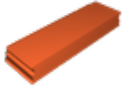

Happy Organizing and like if you like!
